

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Effective May 13, 2013
(as amended March 13, 2018)

The purpose of this Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) is to define the standards and values which B2Gold Corp. (the “Company”) expects its personnel to follow in all of their dealings with stakeholders and activities with the Company. This Code applies to all personnel of the Company and all of its subsidiaries and any other entity controlled by the Company (collectively, the “B2Gold Group”), including every director, officer and employee of the B2Gold Group (the “B2Gold Personnel”).

The Code states basic principles that should guide the affairs of the B2Gold Group and addresses certain specific situations, but it is not intended to be comprehensive. Directors, officers and employees are encouraged to seek guidance on specific issues, particularly with respect to potential conflicts of interest.

The Company’s Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the “Governance Committee”) is responsible for setting the standards of business conduct contained in the Code and updating these standards as it deems appropriate to reflect changes in the legal and regulatory framework applicable to the B2Gold Group, the business practices within the Company’s industry, the Company’s own business practices, and the prevailing ethical standards of the communities in which the B2Gold Group operates. While the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”), through the Governance Committee, will oversee and monitor compliance with the Code, it is the individual responsibility of each B2Gold Personnel to comply with the Code. Each B2Gold Personnel is expected to read and become familiar with the Code and may be required, from time to time, to affirm in writing his or her compliance with the Code. This Code should also be provided to and followed by consultants, agents and representatives, including advisors, engaged by the B2Gold Group.

1. Guiding Principles

- (d) exercise the powers attached to their employment, engagement or other relationship with the Company and use the assets of the B2Gold Group for the purposes for which they were intended;
- (e) demonstrate honesty, truthfulness, respectfulness and integrity in all business dealings and interactions with the B2Gold Group’s shareholders, customers, suppliers, competitors and other employees; and

- (f) act in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations, adhere to the ethical standards set out in the Code and follow the Company's policies and procedures. For certainty, if any applicable law conflicts with a policy in this Code, B2Gold Personnel must comply with the applicable law. A conflict of interest will arise when B2Gold Personnel must choose between the Company's best interests and their personal interests, including when such B2Gold Personnel has personal interest in a B2Gold Group transaction. Any situation where the judgment of such B2Gold Personnel may be compromised, where he or she shows undue favoritism to any party or where he or she receives a personal benefit of some kind is potentially a conflict of interest. All B2Gold Personnel must strive to avoid situations that create a conflict, create the potential for a conflict or create the appearance of a conflict.
- 2.3. Where a conflict of interest may exist, then such B2Gold Personnel must immediately disclose the conflict to a member of the Governance Committee. If a B2Gold Personnel becomes aware of a material transaction or relationship (including those involving family members) that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest, he or she should discuss the matter promptly with a member of the Governance Committee.
- 2.4. If required by the Board, where a director of the Company has a conflict of interest, such director shall retire from any meeting of the Board while discussion on the applicable material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction is taking place and shall refrain from voting on the subject under consideration, but this will not prevent the Board from calling him or her into the meeting to answer any questions regarding the matter under discussion nor shall it release the director from his or her obligation to inform the Board.

3. Use of B2Gold Group Resources
